

Bettina Mutter

Senior Partner

Bettina Mutter (1965) has extensive experience in developing and implementing public affairs, lobbying and communication strategies as well as in advisory services for associations and high-profile business people in the areas of crisis management, tailored political communication and media relations. She has a wide range of excellent contacts in the political arena, among members of the federal parliament, the federal and cantonal governments, as well as with key players in the media. Bettina Mutter manages consulting mandates for national and international corporations and associations in sectors such as services, industrials, healthcare, insurance, architecture and culture. She is a lecturer at Lucerne's Media Training Centre (MAZ) and at PHW Business School in Berne.

Between 2008 and 2011, Bettina Mutter worked at an international consulting firm and was responsible for public affairs. Prior to that, she headed the editorial team for politics at a news magazine. As a public affairs and communications specialist, she worked for 15 years as a political journalist and correspondent at the Federal House for national print and electronic media (TA Media AG, Swiss national TV SF DRS) in Zurich and Berne.

Bettina Mutter graduated from Fribourg University with a degree in history and and got further education in public affairs and corporate communications. She speaks German, English and French.

Berne office

Telephone +41 31 312 28 42, Mobile +41 79 684 95 11

bmu@dynamicsgroup.ch